

Rescheduled Date for Johnella Bird Workshop

WORKING WITH RELATIONSHIP INJURIES

(Monday and Tuesday) October 6th & 7th, 2008

9.30am – 4.30pm Cost $325.00 (GST Incl)

Do you find yourself avoiding couple work? Have you ever thrown your hands in the air after a couple session while asking yourself, 'What else could I have done?' This presentation will engage you in an exploration of a relational way of talking with couples which allows the often difficult couple concerns to be investigated more fully and productively.

Throughout this presentation I will demonstrate a therapeutic process where I engage couples in addressing such serious concerns as significant betrayals of trust, long-standing conflicts, the impact of losses and grief and the negotiation of relationships.

A Resource-Centred Approach

Johnella Bird is a counselling practitioner and co-director of The Family Therapy Centre in Auckland, New Zealand. She consults to and facilitates teaching programs for mental health practitioners, social workers, psychiatrists, counsellors, psychologists and nurses throughout Europe, Canada, the United States, Australia and New Zealand. The theoretical and technical development of her clinical work continues to be founded on an extensive counselling practice with individuals, couples and families. Johnella is the author of 'The Heart's Narrative' (2000), 'Talk That Sings' (2004) and 'Constructing The Narrative In Super-vision' (2006).
